

Saratoga Community Band
Old Fashioned Sunday Afternoon Concert in the Park
Wildwood Park, 4th Street, Saratoga
Bring lawn chairs, a picnic and refreshments
May 22, 2011, 4-6 pm

Program

Syncopated Clock

Leroy Anderson

The Beatles

Medley of Their Music

Hard Day's Night, Yesterday, I Want to Hold Your Hand, Michelle & Hey Jude

Fiddler on the Roof

Jerry Block

Medley of songs from the Broadway Musical

Satchmo

Music of Louis Armstrong

What a Wonderful World, Saints Go Marching In, St. Louis Blues, Hello Dolly

Old Time Themes

John Edmondson

Music of the 1920's: Chicago, Carolina in the Morning, Margie, April Showers & Running Wild

Invercargill March

Lithgow/Laurendeau

Intermission

A Musical Tribute to the 150th Anniversary of the Civil War

Blue & Gray (Songs of the Civil War era)

Clare Grundman

Kingdom Coming, Marching Through Georgia, Tenting Tonight, Yellow Rose of Texas, Bonnie Blue Flag, Aura Lee, Battle Cry of Freedom and Battle Hymn of the Republic

Lincoln at Gettysburg

Barry Kopetz

Narrator reciting the Gettysburg Address: Dr. Hugh Roberts, former history teacher at Saratoga High School and Chairman of the Social Studies Department

Ashokan Farewell

Jay Ungar

The theme song for the 1990 PBS TV mini-series "The Civil War"

America the Beautiful

Carmen Dragon

Even though it was not composed during the Civil War period, it is one of our most beloved patriotic songs uniting our country.

Stars & Stripes Forever

John Philip Sousa

Written after the end of the Civil War, it has become recognized worldwide as a symbol of America, and is the most popular march ever written.

Donations offered at this concert go to support the Saratoga Historical Foundation